Keep your information current
Use Wake Network to update your personal information and search for fellow alumni.

Refer a prospective student
Know someone who you believe would be a good addition to one of our graduate business programs? Tell us about them.

Recruit School of Business talent
We can help you recruit and connect with Wake Forest students. Visit Employer Relations.

Stay Connected
Follow us on LinkedIn go.wfu.edu/linkedinwfsusb
Follow us on Twitter @WakeForestBiz
Follow us on Facebook WatchForestBiz

Questions?
Contact School of Business Alumni Engagement at sbalumni@wfu.edu.

VIEW THE RECAP

View the Alumni Weekend recap »

Thank you, Alumni, for Connecting with the School of Business!
Thanks to our alumni for joining us and continuing to stay connected to the University at the following events:

- On March 21, alumni from the Schools of Business, Law, and Medicine joined us for A Conversation with the Deans panel about the future of healthcare in the US, moderated by Provost Rogan Kersh at WFU Charlotte Center.
- On April 11, more than 35 Atlanta-based School of Business alumni attended An Evening with the School of Business to hear updates from Dean Charles Iacovou. A special thanks to Brian (’00, MSA ’01) and Anne Branson for hosting.
- On April 18, Charlotte MBA program alumni and students participated in Cutting Edge Advice: A Recruiters Panel, co-sponsored by UNC Charlotte.

UPCOMING ALUMNI EVENTS

Alumni-Faculty Awards Reception: May 7, Winston-Salem, NC
Annually, alumni recognize two faculty members for their excellence in teaching through the Horace Kelly and Kienzle Awards. The winners will be announced at the Faculty Awards Reception; please join us on May 7 to help celebrate. Register by Friday, May 3.
A Day with the School of Business: May 14, Shanghai, China
The School of Business returns to Shanghai next month! All School of Business alumni, current students, incoming students and parents are invited to join. Wake Forest incoming and current students and their parents (not just School of Business!) are invited to the first portion of the day which includes a lunch, student-parent panel (in Mandarin), and networking event. Programming for alumni begins at 4:00 p.m. with Back to the Classroom: The Health of the Global Economy - A Data Driven Explanation with faculty member Dr. Mark Johnson, followed by a cocktail reception and dinner. Register by Friday, May 10.

An Evening with the School of Business: May 16, San Francisco, CA
WFU alumni, parents, and friends are invited to join the School of Business Leadership Team and 12 of our faculty for a special event. Meet our faculty members and learn about their areas of interest. Enjoy making new connections throughout the evening and growing your Wake Forest network. Drinks and hors d’oeuvres included. Register by Monday, May 13.

Camp Third Act: May 31 - June 1, Winston-Salem, NC
Alumni are invited to return to Mother, So Dear for Camp Third Act, a signature program to help you contemplate the “third act” of your life. This event is designed to guide you to identify and reach goals for your best life, and build a roadmap for what’s next. Register by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, May 24.

ALUMNI IN THE NEWS
Deacon Spotlight: Mattie DelVecchio (‘14)
Mattie DelVecchio (‘14) was the featured alumna on the Alumni Personal & Career Development Center’s Deacon Spotlight. Mattie is currently the Manager of Enterprise Brand Marketing at Hilton.

SCHOOL NEWS
School of Business MSBA Students Place First in Case Competition
A student team representing the Master of Science in Business Analytics (MSBA) program took first place in the 2019 Wake Forest University Graduate Business Analytics Competition. Seven colleges across the country participated in the data-driven challenge, which culminated in a final round at the 2019 Inmar Analytics Forum March 27.
Celebrate Retiring Faculty Member Stan Mandel
Longtime School of Business faculty member Stan Mandel recently retired. His expertise in entrepreneurship made him an incredible resource for so many of you. Please share your well wishes with him as he begins this next chapter.

GET INVOLVED

Graduate Well Wishes
Share your well wishes and words of encouragement with our students graduating in May. Your thoughts will be displayed on the TV screens throughout Farrell Hall during the various School of Business receptions that will occur during graduation weekend.

Participate in Summer Orientations: MSBA July 7-9, MSM July 10-12
Alumni are invited to join summer orientations for the MSBA and MSM programs. Participate in a new student lunch or orientation panel during the week of July 7, or informational interviews with new students in July or August. Masters in Management Alumni should contact Kaitlyn Cooper (cooperk@wfu.edu), Associate Director, Integrative Student Services - Masters in Management program, for more information. MSBA Alumni should contact Cherie Fu (fuy@wfu.edu), Assistant Director, Integrative Student Services - Masters in Business Analytics program, for more information.

Call for Sponsors: MSM Action Learning Project 2
Action Learning Projects (ALP) enable students to apply their academic knowledge to real-world business challenges. We are currently seeking sponsors interested in providing “live” projects for students to gain valuable practical experience. Each team is matched with a different sponsor and project to manage. Contact Angie Lynde (lyndeaj@wfu.edu), Assistant Director, Experiential Learning, for more information.

ADDITIONAL UPDATES

Executive Education Opportunities
Wake Forest Executive Education is pleased to offer three intensive one-day immersions in Business Analytics at the Wake Forest Innovation Quarter in Winston-Salem June 11 and 13 and Authentic and Effective Leadership at the Wake Forest University Charlotte Center on June 25. Please join us! Alumni discounts are available.
Alumni Career Fair: May 15, Raleigh, NC
Recent graduates and experienced alumni are invited to attend a career fair, sponsored by Credit Suisse. While this event is on NC State’s campus, it is open to alumni from other institutions. More than 80 employers in varying industries will be there, including ChannelAdvisor Corporation, Lowe’s Companies Inc., Desposco, Venture Back Office, Parkdale Mills, and many more! Learn more.