School of Business Homecoming Open House: September 20
Join us for a special ceremony from 3:00 - 4:30 p.m. with students, faculty, staff, Dean Charles Iacovou, and President Nathan Hatch where we will announce a new partnership between Allegacy Federal Credit Union and the School of Business. A networking reception follows the program.

Register for all the weekend’s events including the Open House, Alumni Tailgate, and football game by visiting homecoming.wfu.edu.

UPCOMING EVENTS

MBA Meetup: September 12, Charlotte
Current MBA students, alumni and prospective students are invited to join us from 6:00 - 7:30 p.m. at 4001 Yancey. The first 50 attendees will receive a free drink ticket. Consider bringing a prospective MBA candidate. Registration is required.

LinkedIn Workshop: September 16, Winston-Salem
LinkedIn is no longer just a job search tool. It truly is a business tool and one that, when used properly, can provide value for individuals and businesses. Teddy Burriss of Burriss Consulting will deliver an interactive seminar on LinkedIn from 6:00 - 8:00 p.m. Register by September 13.
SCHOOL NEWS

- Professor Derek Avery receives international award. Read more.
- Jeff Triplette ('73) named Executive in Residence. Read more.
- Professor Julie Wayne nominated for Rosabeth Moss Kanter Award. Read more.

GET INVOLVED

Community Coaching Opportunities
The community business leader coaching program provides a unique opportunity for School of Business alumni who are industry professionals to enrich students’ development as both team members and business leaders. Contact Lyn Myers (myerslb@wfu.edu), Senior Operations Manager, Center for Leadership and Character, for more information.

Experiential Learning Opportunities
The Masters in Management (MSM) program has opportunities for alumni to engage with students. Consider being an Action Learning Project sponsor, judging team presentations, or volunteering to speak to a class or on a panel. Contact Angie Lynde (lyndeaj@wfu.edu), Assistant Director, Experiential Learning, for more information.

Employer Recruiting Opportunities
Please keep current Wake Forest University students in mind as we enter the next academic year. Full-time jobs and internships can be added to the Handshake system. Short-term paid projects can be posted on our micro-internship site.

Subscribe to our Employer Relations newsletter or read our latest employer communication.

ADDITIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

Celebrate LatinX Heritage Month
In honor of LatinX Heritage Month, we are recognizing our Hispanic/LatinX alumni on digital boards in both Farrell Hall and the WFU Charlotte Center. To participate, tell us about yourself.

Strategic Thinking Workshop: September 10, Charlotte
National Black MBAA of Charlotte is hosting a Strategic Thinking Workshop at the WFU Charlotte Center, facilitated by Professor Dan Fogel. Learn more and register here (select WFU).

UPCOMING EVENTS

September 20
Winston-Salem: School of Business Open House

October 9
Charlotte: MSM Alumni Happy Hour with Associate Dean Norma Montague

October 9
Charlotte: MSA Alumni Happy Hour with Associate Dean Mark Evans

October 10
New York: An Evening with the School of Business with special guest Dr. Ajay Patel

October 17
Winston-Salem: MSBA Happy Hour with Associate Dean Jeff Camm

November 22
Charlotte: Happy Hour before WFU-Davidson Basketball Game

December 17
Austin: An Evening with the School of Business with special guest Dr. Jeff Camm
Participate in our MBA Referral Program
School of Business alumni know better than anyone the type of candidate who will thrive at Wake Forest. The MBA Referral Program is a formal way to facilitate these connections. By referring an incoming MBA student you will receive an invite to the referral dinner; an exclusive Wake MBA branded "members only" jacket; a scholarship of at least $3,000 given to your referral, in your name; and a raffle ticket to win additional prizes.

- Charlotte MBA candidates: encourage them to schedule a one-on-one consultation, register for an upcoming event, or help facilitate an introduction to Jeremiah Nelson (nelsonjs@wfu.edu), Director, Enrollment Management.
- Winston-Salem MBA candidates: encourage them to contact Kevin Bender (benderkc@wfu.edu), Executive Director, Winston-Salem Evening MBA program.

EXECUTIVE EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES

Competitive Strategic Marketing: October 8-9, Charlotte
This workshop gives you access to expert B2B/B2C practitioners Craig Geiger (Senior Manager - Insights & Analytics, Kellogg's) and Brad Bennett (Co-President and Chief Development Officer, Wildfire Creative). The combination of academic and practitioner insights will translate learnings into effective marketing strategy. Registration required. Alumni receive a 25% discount.

Building and Leading Effective Teams: October 16, Winston-Salem
This one-day program will provide you with the knowledge and tools to build and lead effective teams, manage conflict, and more. Registration required. Alumni receive a 25% discount.